You want a website.
I can help with that!

I specialize in helping people, just like you, create websites they love.

Let's Get Started!

Hi! I'm Lisa of LS Codes

I love creating websites that truly express your vision. Need a static page coded with HTML & CSS? A WordPress site that you can amend at your whim? Help defining your brand? Or just a bit of assistance updating your site? I can help. Would you like to see what I can do?

Gossip

"I have truly enjoyed working with Lisa. She is a great listener and really works to figure out what the customer is visualizing. She is quick to respond, communicates well, and understands how to put a beautiful website together that will draw attention to your products and services." Jill Machovsky
